Minutes from the Monthly General Meeting Held at the Clubrooms on the 13th August 2020 Commencing at 7.30pm

President Daryl opened the meeting, thanked Kelvin Ennor for standing in as Secretary and called for apologies. Motion H Baker/Lenny Johnson that apologies be accepted. Carried.

Minutes Moved L Whateley/R Johnson that the minutes from the previous meeting, as circulated, be adopted. Carried.

Arising NHMA Cards have been received for financial members.

Treasurer Neil presented the Treasurers report N Buckley/J Pares Carried.

Correspondence Several newsletters were tabled.

General Business As the rules on restriction are in a state of flux, we are still looking at potentially holding a small tractor trek on the rally weekend. With about 8-10 tractors (we just need some more drivers). BYO packed lunch, maybe at Conargo. We will finalize at September meeting.

We have been advised that Lake Goldsmith of OFF in November – planning for May 2021.

President Daryl then thanked the members for attendance and input.

Meeting Closed at 8pm.

Presidents Message

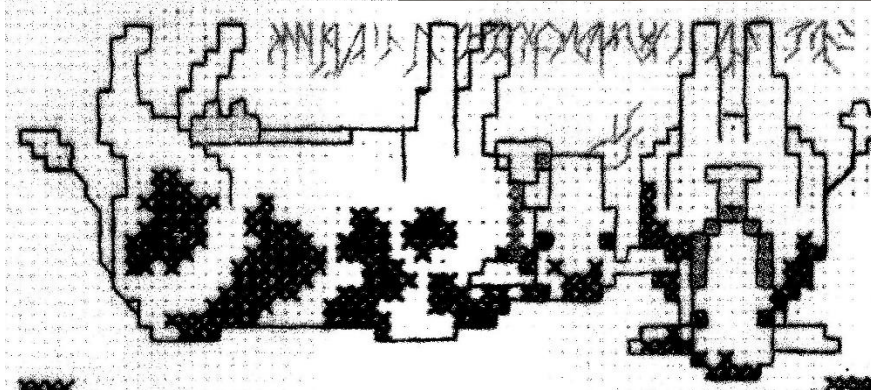

Well we may be back having meetings but that looks to be about all we can do at the moment. That sounds like déjà vu.

My thanks to the people who bring supper along as it is much appreciated especially at present as we are all restricted a little in what we can do.

Memberships are coming in quite well (and it makes our Treasurer smile) but bear in mind the requirement for historic registration is that you must be a financial member.

ThanksDaryl
