Minutes of General Monthly Meeting at Clubrooms 9/4/26 7.30pm

Vice President Steve in the absence of President Doug opened the meeting at 7.30pm and called for apologies.

Apologies: were recorded on the attendance sheet on a motion of John/Lyn. Carried.

Minutes: Daryl/Neil that the minutes of the previous meeting be confirmed as correct.

Arising: New fridge installed, cabinets yet to be organized.

Correspondence: As per correspondence register. Daryl/David that the correspondence be tabled. Carried.

Treasurer: Treasurer Neil tabled his report Moved Neil, seconded David. Carried.

General Business.

- The members were asked if they wanted a rally this year and were prepared to help. Consensus was "Yes." Moved by John/Lyn that we hold a rally on third weekend in September (19 th & 20 th). Carried. The volunteers for the rally committee were Daryl (Rally Sec), Helen, John C, Rebekah, Neil, Damien, and Daryl A.

Outings.

- The Eagles displayed at Warracknabeal and Pete attended also.
- David advised the model T club visit to Deniliquin was an enormous success with 25 "Ts" from 1912-1925 attending with a good display in Waring Gardens. They had a good look around Deni and went on to Wunghnu for the Federation Picnic on Sunday. They had a Dinner at Moama on the Sunday and a Paddle steamer trip. David's "T" won best Veteran.
- Lyn spoke on Wunghnu where the Comers, Whateleys, Trenchers & Neil either displayed or went on the tractor trek (or both). Lyn won best indoor exhibit and Rob won best truck on display. Usual great well-organized rally and the pancakes on the trek were up to their usual standard.
- Steve spoke on the Echuca Rod Run with over 500 entries. And he and Chrissy attended the Narrandera Rod Run with their Car and Caravan, 400 plus entries.
